Tentative dates for upcoming events will be: September 18th (Study Table), October 30th (Movie Night, Halloween theme), November 13th (Study Table), and November 27th (Eat out, Thanksgiving theme). Any other ideas are welcome.
- IAAE-Purdue Secretary Alicia Batta is currently not attending Purdue this semester so discussion about how to fill the spot was made.
- Discussion about collecting dues was made. James Wolff will start collecting as soon as possible. Dues are $15.
- It was mentioned that on the display board we need to actually spell out what IAAE means for the public.
- Dan Gottschalk suggested that this year we should try to create a budget for the club, and discussed how we could change our scholarship to incoming freshman.
- Dr. Peters talked about an opportunity to attend a meeting about fundraisers. It was also noted that individuals could talk to other students about fundraisers at the upcoming AAAE conference.
- It was discussed that the Chicken BBQ be planned further ahead of time next year by the executive committee.

Announcements:

- Soils Invitational coming up September 22nd
- Executive Committee meeting Wednesday September 5th, 5:30pm, all chairs expected to attend.

IAAE
Purdue Chapter
Minutes
September 19, 2007

The meeting room was called to order at 5:32 p.m. by President Brian Springer.

Officer Reports:

- James reported the treasury of having $7546.49 and said he had dues from about half of the members.
- Greg talked about community service at the Women's Shelter. They had two things they could have us do (repairing steps, and putting together a storage building), both only requiring 2-5 people. The grant from Purdue also needs to be placed immediately if we wanted to help the Women's Shelter. Discussion was that members would like something that more of the club can participate in. It was also suggested to contact the Boiler Volunteer Network for a community service project that could involve the entire club.

Special Reports: None

Committee Reports:

-Executive

-Awards, Membership and Finance

-Campus and Community

- Trafalgar Work Day is scheduled for October 13th and housing is still questionable. Aleesa is going to try to get a list of items they need us to do so we can get necessary tools. Pumpkin Painting will be Monday October 15th at 5pm at the Boys and Girls Club.

-Newsletter

- All articles were turned in for the newsletter and it should be out by next Tuesday.

-Program and Career Development

- Supplies have been checked upon for the Fall Frolic, and a list is being made for supplies to buy. It will be October 4th at Happy Hollow Park, we have a shelter reserved from 4-9pm, eating will begin at 5:30pm. Committee members are asked to bring a list of possible banquet speakers to the next meeting in YDAE 240.

-Publicity

- Discussion with Jared Roberts came to the conclusion that it is a bad idea to order both hoodies and t-shirts. If more people order one item only we will get a bigger discount on price. The decision will be made in YDAE 240. Discussion on how to collect the money was made, one suggestion was to collect a down payment from members who wanted a clothing item. Every committee needs to bring ideas for clothing designs to the next YDAE 240 meeting.

Old Business:

New Business:

- James and Aaron have put together a rough estimate of expenses/income in order to plan a club budget. They would like to meet with the co-chairs of the Program and Career Development, and the Awards, Membership, and Finance committees to work more on the projected budget.
- Mary brought up the condition of our display board, and would like to make improvements to it. Suggestions were to purchase a new one or put time into repairing the one we have.

- James said that the Collegiate 4-H Club asked if we would volunteer our time to make sandwiches for them for their regional conference, but they would pay for our expenses. The conference is November 2-4th. He is going to ask for volunteers in YDAE 240 and ask the Collegiate 4-H their budget for the sandwiches.

Announcements:

- Fall Frolic October 4th, 5:30pm at Happy Hollow Park
- Trafalgar Work Day October 13th
- Pumpkin Painting October 15th, 5pm Boys and Girls Club
- College of Agriculture Hog Roast October 16th
- Next Executive Meeting October 17th
- National FFA Convention October 22-27th

Minutes
October 3, 2007

The meeting room was called to order at 5:33 p.m. by Vice President Sarah Newkirk.

Officer Reports:

- Greg said he has kept in contact with Rita at the Women's Shelter and that she would gather things for something for us to do for next spring.
- James gave the treasurers report of $7546.49, and said about 65 people have paid dues so far. James also reminded everyone that event planning forms need to be turned in 2 weeks prior to the event if it is within the county, and travel planning forms if it is out of the county. If this is not done our expenses may not be reimbursed.

Special Reports: None

Committee Reports:

-Executive

-Awards, Membership and Finance

- Talked to Sarah McGee about selling fruit and their school is not allowed. They will be in contact with Benton Central or Delphi to see about fruit selling and storage. There are 2 fruit companies that give scholarships to IAAE-Purdue, so these companies will be the priority to buy from. Another idea for fundraiser is selling bags of popcorn.

-Campus and Community

- There will be 50 pumpkins for Pumpkin Painting, they are not sure if they will be donated or purchased yet. Pumpkin Painting will begin at 5:00pm so members need to arrive at 4:45pm at the Boys and Girls Club. Emails will be sent out as reminders for Pumpkin Painting and Trafalgar Work Day. Talked with the Boiler Volunteer Network and we just need to give them a date and they will plan an event for us.

-Newsletter

- The next newsletter will not be out until November.

-Program and Career Development

- Discussed Fall Frolic, 12-16 members of ACT said they will be coming. Still taking banquet speaker ideas, discussed when this needs to be decided and by whom. The committee will decide on the banquet speaker since we don't have another meeting for some time.

-Publicity

- After voting is done on the shirt designs they will be in contact with Jerry.

Old Business:

- Oct. 16th, YDAE 240 will be held in the Deans Auditorium and there will be a reception afterwards. Volunteers are needed to serve food and drinks from 11:20-12:20, expected to dress nice. Doug Loudenslager is the speaker on the topic of "Future of Agriculture Education."

New Business:

- Mentor/Mentee Halloween Costume Party is set for October 30th. There will be drinks, apple cider, and prizes.

Announcements:

- Trafalgar Work Day October 13th
- Pumpkin Painting October 15th, 5pm Boys and Girls Club

Officer Reports:

- James reported the treasury at $7536.02.

Special Reports: None

Committee Reports:

-Executive

-Awards, Membership and Finance

- Emails have been sent to the fruit companies but they have received no replies yet. They are checking into selling popcorn as a fundraiser also.

-Campus and Community

- Pumpkin Painting went well, everyone had fun, and they had 32 kids show up.

-Newsletter

- The November newsletter will be the last one for the semester.

-Program and Career Development

- Fall Frolic went well. The banquet speaker has not been decided yet.

-Publicity

- Campus and Community won the shirt votes. A deadline is needed for collecting money and taking orders.

Old Business:

New Business:

- Mary discussed a deadline for taking shirt money. James suggested three weeks which would give two meetings in YDAE 240 for collecting money. This would make it due by November 6th.
- Sarah said the Mentor Committee will be shopping at Walmart for Apple Cider, prizes, and will be renting a movie for the Halloween night, and they need a budget. Sarah moved to give the Mentor Committee a budget of $50, motion was seconded and passed.
- Mariah Wise brought up the Evaluation of Activities sheet for IAAE-Purdue events. It hasn't been used in a while and everyone discussed starting using it again. It was also suggested to revise the POA in the committee folders as the year goes along. The evaluation sheet was read over to everyone and small revisions are going to be made and prepared for the Oct. 30th committee meetings.
- Brian brought up the Christmas Party. Someone needs to contact farmhouse, and a date needs to be set. December 6th is a possible date so far. Brian told everyone how the officer procedures work.
- James said that everyone needs to get their event/travel planning forms in earlier than they have been getting turned in. They should be turned in at least 2 weeks prior to the event. It was suggested to fill them out as soon as a date is set for the activity.
