-Sandwich Making

- Cayla Mustin reported that the first sandwich making was a success with 15-20 people showed up to make the 30 lunches. Extra help is going to be need for the sandwich making during national convention since Madeline and Rachel will be at convention.

Old Business:

-Mike Warstler brought up the Hot Chocolate social- no good last year, no recruitment since only members from the clubs attended, may think about not doing this year unless changes have been made.

-Hot Chocolate Social is a good idea but is our time and money better spent somewhere else?

- Hot Chocolate was no good

- Space was too small

-Christmas Party

- Pick a date FarmHouse should be open

-Senior Party

- Some seniors who are not active and not paying dues are still getting gifts.

- Should they have to attend minimum number of events along with paying their dues?- just dues and fun activities or money making activities

-keep track of who does what?- hard to do- would have to start with freshmen class

- Invite only to dues paying seniors and members

- Some who got gifts last year where not seniors- just in methods class and some already have a degree
-$20 spent last year per senior
-Changes made need to be made in the POA to clarify who will receive gifts and what kind of gifts it should be

New Business:

-Allison Korb asked for opinions on whether or not we should offer to pay for travel expenses for Dr. Mark Balschweid if he agreed to be the banquet speaker. He is our number one choice.

-Allison Korb moved to contact Dr. Mark Balschweid as exec recommendation to be the spring IAAE-Purdue banquet. Second. Passed.

-Sadie Davis moved to have a nice dinner for the mentor/mentee program on October 5th instead of cornhole tournament or scavenger hunt since cold weather is coming. Second. Passed

- Nice dinner- Panda Express, Moe's and American- around the world theme

-Open new members eyes to what is around campus

-ask restaurants to include menus and maybe coupons

- game night was not working

- ask to have dues extended till after the event for new members

-Aaron McKim moved to give senior gifts to all senior members the club feels deserving.

-Tricia Ritter moved to amend the motion by striking out all members the club feels deserving and insert give gifts to all dues paying IAAE-Purdue members who will be student teaching in the spring. Second. Passed.

-Motion Passed

-Main Motion- Passed

New Business:

-Logan Sprinstun- Happy Hollow was $45 to rent last night and it was $75 this year for three hours. May need to look for a new location with parking, recreation, and good facility.

-Happy Hollow is a good facility but not worth drive and bad parking

-Pickett Park $15- bad parking

- With FarmHouse grill- the bigger the parking lot the better

-Columbian Park- free zoo, swing set, open area, train, a little of a drive

- Merdock Park- volleyball, same distance as Columbian Park, drive get the grill there

- Rec fields by the airport- open to reserve? how busy?
